IN DOUBTFUL STATES

Value of Populistic Indorsement in the Ohio Valley.

THE REAL BATTLE GROUND THIS YEAR

Election Returns of the Past That Bear on the Future.

PERCENTAGE STRENGTH

Just now the practical politicians are seriously debating the question: What will be the real effect in November of the action of the populists in seconding the nomination of Bryan?

Usually the indorsement of a candidate by a third party is a great aid to him. It may mean the carrying of many close states, and hence it may secure for him the final victory. It is a serious problem whether this will be the result in Mr. Bryan's case, for certain peculiar reasons. Were the election to rest with the people of such now truly doubtful states as Nebraska, California, Missouri, Kansas, Colerado and other communities in the mining region, where the free silver movement started, the indorsement of the populists would certainly go far toward making Bryan President. But the republican man-Bryan President. But the republican managers have greatly discounted the campaign in these states by basing their calculations for victory on New England, New York, Pennsylvania, New Jersey, Maryland, Delaware, West Virginia, Ohio, Indiana, Illinois, Michigan, Iowa, Minnesota, Wisconsin and perhaps Kentucky. Should they carry all of these states their candidate would have 249 of the 442 electoral votes, or 27 more than a majority. They therefore trim off Kentucky and West Virginia, losing 19 votes, and still claim 230 in the losing 19 votes, and still claim 230 in the electoral college, or 8 more than enough. This necessitates the carrying of such states as Michigan, Indiana and Illinois, states as Michigan, Indiana and Illinois, which may be considered as fair fighting ground for the combined forces favorable to free silver.

The Real Battle Ground.

Thus the real battle field is almost sure to include the states of the Ohio valley, Michigan, Maryland and Iowa, and the issue comes squarely on the exact worth of the populistic indorsement in those states. and not what it is worth in the far west and in the south. To answer that question would be a feat in prophecy. To guess at the answer is merely to echo the claims of the answer is merely to echo the claims of the party managers. Therefore the best way out of the woods at this stage of the campaign is to glance at the past and see the strength of the populist vote in former elections in these states. Such a considera-tion must lie wholly outside of the possi-bilities of bolts from the two great parties, free silver republicans voting for Bryan and sound meney democrats supporting McKinley. It concerns only the value of the fusion movement in these debatable states, irrespective of the changes in oid the fusion movement in these debatable states, irrespective of the changes in oid party lines caused by new issues.

For instance, take Kentucky. According to the returns of the last three elections held in that state the populists have practically ceased to be a factor in the campaigns. The following table illustrates this fact more forcibly than words:

Kent	n words: ucky.

elections the populists of Kentucky have been gradually dwindling, not only in actual numbers, but also in the percentage of their extensity of their strength as computed on the basis vote cast. The percentage figures tell the story. In 1895 the populists might have defeated the republican state ticket by a perfect fusion with the demo crats, but it is a question now whether they will be strong enough, in view of their diminishing numbers, and also in view of the great size of the sound money faction of the democratic party, to form a successful fusion this year. Illinois.

But in 1894 a fusion democrats would not have defeated the republican ticket, nor would a fusion with the republicans in 1892 have beaten the democrats. It would seem as though a large part of the increase in the populist column in 1894 came from the democracy, which fell off at a great rate in two years. In 1894 32,654 of the 59,792 populists voted in the city of Chicago alone.

342,455 Fusion has been twice successfully accomplished in Michigan, resulting in the election of Begole and Winans. But not in 1892, 1894 or 1895 could the third party have swung the tide, although it has steadily increased in proportion. It lost in num-bers in 1895 and this vote seemed to stay at home along with many thousand den crats and republicans. The state was surely republican and the issues were not attractive. Judging from all three of the elec-tions here reproduced, embracing both republican and democratic tidal waves, does not appear to be much ground for a successful fusion movement.

The flags are holsted each day upon the issue of the morning weather map and float until dark They indicate the weather that may be expected during the following thirty-six hours, but more particularly the last twenty-four hours of that period. They are to be read from the top of the staff downward. If more than one kind of weather is predicted for the period from 8 a.m. to 8 p.m. the conditions first named in the forecast will be represented by the uppermost fing. When a warning of a "cold wave" is included in the forecast message, the cold wave flag will be displayed below the proper "eather flag.

The temperature flag, when placed above numbers 1, 2 or 8, indicates warmer weather; when placed below numbers 1, 2 or 3, indicates colder weather; when not displayed, the indications are that the temperature will remain stationary.

gressional Directory. The populist vote was not given in one district, and it may have been large enough to make a slight increase in the percentage for 1895. Scolose was the state in 1894 that had Weaver's vote been cast solidly for Harrison the latter would have had within eight votes of Cleveland, but that was high water mark for populism in the state and the vote of third party is hardly to be considered this year. Maryland. 42.90% 98,806 53.02% Dem......113,866 796 0.37% 186,346 240,205 Still less is this vote an important ele-ment in Maryland. The prohibitionists are far more consequential as a balance, but the two main parties have always monopolized the vast bulk of the voting strength and fusion is an absurdity under the circumstances. General Conclusions.

Thus it is apparent that in Indiana only of all these doubtful states where the battle is to rage the fiercest have the populists ever held the balance of power, and then only by a narrow margin. In Kentucky, West Virginia and Maryland they are a weak or dwindling force, while in Michigan and Iowa they can not accomplish results on the basis of past experiences. In Illirols they have a fair strength, but not a controlling power. The value of their in-dersement of Bryan, therefore, seems questionable, especially as it is conceded that they will allenate many votes from the regular democratic party, and that at best they can only throw a part of their entire strength to the Chicago nominee.

HAZING AT WEST POINT.

Cadet Rand Receives a Sentence That May Stop the Custom.

According to information received at the War Department, hazing at the West Point Military Academy has received a heavy blow. The court-martial which tried Cade Elliott H. Rand last Wednesday for compelling "Plebes" Harris and Neely to stand on their toes, reached a verdict Saturday afternoon. It sentenced Rand to one year's confinement, with a deprivation of all privileges, including his three months' furbarracks Rand will also be obliged to walk a tour of guard duty every Saturday after-noon, while the rest of the cadets are at liberty.

Rand's severe sentence has struck terror into the hearts of all the would-be hazers The evidence did not directly connect him with the hazing of the two "plebes," and he made a strong defense to substantiate his derial. His sentence may also interfere with his class standing. He is at present at the head of his class, but the hazing episode will seriously mar a hitherto un-blemished record.

AFFAIRS IN GEORGETOWN. Another Change in Trinity Church

Another change is to be made at Trinity Church. This time the parish will lose Rev. Father Zimmerman, the new assistant pastor, who, in the short time he has been there, has made himself so popular. Rev. Father Zimmerman has been ordered to Germany, his native country. He has only been in America about one year. Trinity was the first church he ever served in his present capacity. Before his advent here he devoted himself to writing and educational work. As a writer on religious subjects he has attained considerable prominence. He is a deep thinker, and an authority on all the topics he handles. Many journals have profited through his contributions.

Father Zimmerman has mingled much with his parishioners here, and he will in consequence be doubly missed. He will take his departure about the first of the month. It is reported here, authoritatively, too, that the pustor of Trinity, Rev. Father Scanlan, will be transferred shortly to a new charge.

Tenleytown Road.

The Tenleytown electric line is now being operated by the machinery in the Potomac Light and Power Company's plant. The change was made on Saturday night. The power house of these combined companies is now one of the most perfectly equipped in the United States. The plant is of the most costly and complete in existence. Both coroporations are now owned practically by the same men. The Cramps of Philadelphia are among themost interested, it is said. Several million dollars, it is asserted, can be commanded at almost any

There Will Be Delay in Notifying

It is the present program of the populist bosses to delay informing Mr. Bryan of his omination as long as possible, in the hope that some terms for fusion, on Bryan-Watson electors may be agreed to, and the democratic organization in the southern states reconciled to supporting so distasteful a vice presidential candidate as the Georgia populist. Senator Allen, the chairman of the notification committee, has secured permission to assemble the committee at his own pleasure, and it is even whispered that he contemplates not calling the members together at all. This extreme policy is advocated by Governor Holcomb of Nebraska, Senator Stewart of Nevada, and few others of the western contingent. The southern leaders stoutly oppose such abandonment of party dignity and responsibility. A. L. Mims of Tennessee, whose name was before the convention for the nomination for Vice President, was positive in the assertion that Mr. Bryan will be "notified." "We do not care much," said he, "whether he formally accepts the nomination or not. We will vote for him just the same. I think that Mr. Sewall will Mass.; H. G. Holden and wife, New York.;

SPAIN MUST APOLOGIZE. Rumored Demand of This Country in the Todd Case.

The correspondence between Spain and the United States in regard to the case of the schooner William Todd has resulted, it is said, in a demand on the part of the United States for an apology and disavowal by the Spanish authorities. The outrage alleged to have been committed upon the Todd occurred last spring while the vessel was sailing in the vicinity of the Isle of Pines. In the correspondence the Secretary of State has laid down the rule, as applied in the Allianca case, that the Todd was sailing on a natural highway at the time she was overhauled, and that the Spanish man-ofvar had no right whatever to interfere with her. The Todd is a salling vessel, and was on a voyage from Mobile to Kingston when the outrage occurred. In order to take advantage of the wind she had to make long tacks, and upon one of these ap-proached within six miles of the Isle of A Spanish gunboat had been watching her, and in order to cause her to lay-to fired solid shot across her bow. The command ing officers of the man-of-war boarded the schooner, examined her papers and searched her, and finding nothing suspicious allowed her to continue on her way. The authorities say that six miles is beyond the terri-

Return of General and Troops. Maj. Gen. Miles returned to the city yes terday from a visit to the camp of the Pennsylvania state troops at Lewiston. TIED BALTIMORE.

Two Washington Riders Against Three From the Monumental City. The team cycle race held Saturday at Park cycle track, Baltimore, resulted in a tie between Baltimore and Washington. A score of ten points was made by each team, but Washington had only two men in the race, while Baltimore had three. The Washingtonians refused to ride when Referee Albert Mott announced that Fred Sims of Washington was ineligible and should not ride. The other members of the Washington team were George Ball and William Sims, a brother to Fred. The ground of ineligibility was an insufficient term of residence in Washington to satisfy L. A. W. rules. This question had been settled by the national racing board. Opposed to this trio and representing Baltimore were Fred L. Meyers, Robert L. French and T. Cecil Downs. When the Washingtonians withdrew Mr. Mott warnwashingtonians with arew Mr. Mott warned them that a strike on the track would be a serious charge; the two eligibles remounted and the race was ridden by two Washingtonians and a full team of three for Baltimore. Young Sims and Meyers made a game fight for first place, finishing close, with Sims the winner. Ball was third French fourth and Downs fifth First third. French fourth and Downs tifth First place counted six points, second five, third four, fourth three and fifth two points. Two more of these races are yet to be held, the dates for which have not been fixed.

for the Longwood Cup. Closer or more exciting tennis than that of Saturday afternoon in the final of the Lorgwood tournament would be impossible. and the large gathering of tennis enthusiests who saw ex-Champion Wrenn beat Champion Hovey were kept in a constant flutter of excitement from the first stroke to the last. It was a wonderfully plucky match for the ex-champion, however, Hovey captured the second and fourth sets easily and led in all three of the others, but Wrenn's uphill play pulled out the first, third and fifth. Although Hovey scored three more games than Wrenn in the five sets, the total number of strokes won was exactly the same, 201 being actotals show a much larger proportion of earned strokes, however, for he passed Wrenn seventy-eight times and made seven aces on service, while Wrenn did not make a single ace on service and passed the champion only twenty-nine times in the match.

Hovey's fatal weakness was the net, and he drove seventy-nine balls into it as against thirty-nine similar errors for Wrenn. The champion put eighty-six out of court and made seven double faults while Wrenn lost seventy-three on outs and four on doubles.

The big handicap was also finished Satand afternoon, soon after the final match in the scratch tournament. Leo E. Ware of Parvard met J. D. Forbes, also of Harvard, in the final round, and beat him in an interesting four-set match. Ware conceded odds of 4-6 to 15 to Forbes and lost only one set in four. The day's scores follow:

Championship singles (final round)—R. D. Wrenn beat F. H Hovey, 10-8, 2-6, 6-4, 1-6, Challenge round-R. D. Wrenn, challen ger, beat W. A. Larned, holder, by default. Handicap singles (semi-final round)—L. E. Ware (scratch) beat Richard Hooker (4-6 of 15), 6-3, 6-5; J. D. Forbes (4-6 of 15) beat J. F. Talmage, jr. (scratch), 6-4, 6-2. Final round—L. E. Ware (scratch) beat J. D. Forbes (4-6 of 15), 6-4, 5-7, 6-2, 6-3.
